Polygonia represents a multidisciplinary music and art project conceived by Lindsey Wang from Munich, Germany. The soundscapes of her productions exude a mystical, organic quality, featuring intricate and compelling rhythms. Polygonia's musical spectrum has no limit in terms of BPM. Her main focus regarding genre directions lays on Techno, Grey Area, Downtempo and Ambient. She draws a lot of inspiration from nature as well as from her deep knowledge about instruments and musical theory which plays a major role in her productions.
